NOTES TO PRACTITIONER:

- Generally, re-registration applicants do not need to submit copies of any documentation to demonstrate eligibility but practitioners may want to include at least one supporting document to show the applicant's continuous residence since they were initially granted TPS.
  - Examples include employment records, pay stubs, IRS printout of Federal income tax returns, rent receipts, utility bills, school records, medical records, attestation from church/religious institution, birth certificates of children born in the United States, dated bank transactions, insurance policies, and vehicle registration.
- Those submitting first-time re-registrations with USCIS after an Immigration Judge or the Board of Immigration Appeals has granted TPS should include a copy of that decision with their Form I-821.

Should you require any additional information, please contact our office. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
