

New Immigration Relief for Certain Liberians

Use this checklist to collect the documents you will need to apply for lawful permanent residency.

If you qualify for lawful permanent residency under Liberian Refugee Immigration Fairness, you may now submit your application. The period to apply ends on Dec. 20, 2020. To learn more about this program, visit www.uscis.gov/green-card/other-ways-get-green-card/liberian-refugee-immigration-fairness.

Many people will offer to help you—some would like to take advantage of you and others are well-intentioned. Both can hurt your legal status in the future. Consult only with qualified legal services providers. Be sure to work with an immigration lawyer or DOJ-accredited representative. Ask for proof of his or her credentials. Visit cliniclegal.org/find-legal-help/affiliates/directory to find help in your area.

Collect your important documents!

Identity Documents

- Government-issued identification document (passport, voter registration card)
- Birth certificate

Proof of Continuous Presence in the United States since Nov. 20, 2014

- List of previous residence addresses with dates
- Proof of each residence since Nov. 20, 2014 (lease, rent payment receipts, utility bills)
- List of all trips taken outside of the United States since Nov. 20, 2014
- Pay stubs, employment records, paychecks
- Proof of purchases, bank transactions, or receipts with your name, date and location
- Medical, church, DMV or school records, etc.

Records from any Interaction with Police, Immigration or Court Officials

- Traffic tickets
- Criminal or juvenile court documents
- Immigration court documents
- Any other paperwork demonstrating what happened

Application Fees

- Save money for immigration forms and legal fees

Proof of Relationship to Family Members Applying with You (Spouse and Unmarried Children of Any Age)

- Children's birth certificates
- Evidence of maternity/paternity and active relationship with your children
 - Financial ties (child support payments, canceled checks)
 - Emotional ties (mail or email between parents and children, photographs)
 - Other (medical or insurance records, official school records of your child)
- Marriage certificates
- Evidence of good faith marriage (financial records in both names)