Preparing the Full Accreditation Application

• Before Court Skills Training:
  — Develop a plan for obtaining immigration court experience
  • Attend and document your observations of master calendar and/or individual hearings
  • Further develop your legal research, writing and advocacy skills by working with your mentor on removal cases (e.g. draft documents for immigration court, observe consultations and hearing preparations)
  — Watch recorded webinar on "Applying for Full Accreditation"

Preparing the Full Accreditation Application

• After the Court Skills Training (February – August):
  — Continue with your immigration court experience
  — Prepare application using R & A toolkit and step-by-step guide and samples
  — Consult with CLINIC on preparing full accreditation application
  — Provide final draft to CLINIC for feedback
• By August 31, 2024:
  — Submit full accreditation application to Office of Legal Access Programs, notify CLINIC of filing date and provide a copy

Post-Training Timeline

• Within a month of receiving full accreditation from OLAP (even if the date falls after August 31, 2024):
  — Submit a final report to CLINIC that explains how this in-depth training and full accreditation status impacted you professionally and your organization’s capacity to serve your local immigrant communities. Alternatively, if you do not obtain full accreditation status your report should explain why you were unable to complete this requirement.
